

Have You Heard?

by Dorothy McCain Elsenius

Albany Soroptimists ended the year on a happy note having welcomed four new members into their club. New Soropti-sisters were: Albany City Clerk, Pat George; City Treasurer, Betty DeLuchi; Delcie Thompson, who is being groomed to replace Bernice Boyd at Security Savings & Loan; and Barbara Nevatti, who is employed in City Attorney Larry Saler's office. Welcome girls, and be prepared to give your all for the club!

That well-known gourmet, Jerry Blank, says that this is the best time of the year to "eat out," as most of the tourists are home, and many local people don't want to brave the wintry weather (they'd rather sit home by the fire and watch TV), so get out and visit your favorite restaurant.

According to Jerry: "Even the popular S.F. restaurants that give you the cold shoulder during tourist time, now greet you with open arms."

Albany Rotarians had a "Frankly good time" recently, when Frank Spenger, ably assisted by his Maitre D', Frank Gimbel, hosted the club at a pre-luncheon cocktail party at his well-known establishment in Berkeley.

John and Frances Durland of Albany spent a very happy Christmas with their daughter and son-in-law, Evelyn and Kermit Kiewer, in Brawley, where Kermit is head of the Agricultural Department in the local high school.

The occasion was highlighted by the presence of the Kiewers' 9-year-old son, Bruce, who was paralyzed over two years ago with Glioma Barre. After being in and out of hospitals for the last two years, the youngster is almost completely recovered. The Kiewers also have three other children.

In spite of a busy holiday schedule, Mrs. LaVonne Cunningham found time to round up some volunteers to take gifts, baked goods and a happy holiday spirit to some of the servicemen hospitalized at Letterman Hospital in San Francisco.

A good many of the gifts were purchased out of her own pocket, although she did finally ask for help when she discovered there were 80 men in the ward she was planning to visit. The visit was climaxed by the singing of some Christmas carols, and there wasn't a dry eye in the ward.

Chris Friendly, a member of an England Lions Club, visited our fair city last month, while on a tour of the U.S., Australia, and New Zealand, to study services for the blind.

Although Chris spent several hours inspecting our Albany Blind Center and visited with Albany Lion Henry Kruse, Jr., who is employed at the Center, he was unable to meet with members of our local Club because their regular meeting is on Thursday.

Hill Fight Dropped

Friends of Albany Hill have dropped their referendum plan campaign against the Interstate General Development on the Hill, in order not to conflict with an expected school bond election which may be held in March, according to a recent report.

According to Mrs. Catherine Webb, chairman for the group, "The immediate focus should be on the purchase of the remaining open space on the Hill, from the promised $600,000 from Interstate General.

"The public can help by working for matching funds from state and federal sources so other areas of open space can be purchased," she added.

Signatures fell far short of the approximately 972 needed to repeal the zoning ordinance recently granted to the developer or to have the issue brought to a vote of the residents of Albany. The holiday season and sickness among the 30 petition circulators was given as the failure to collect the necessary signatures.

Adult School Announces Winter Term

The 11-week Winter Quarter of Albany Adult School started yesterday, January 2.

The Adult School is organized primarily to serve a wide variety of immediate and long-term individual and community educational needs. Over 100 courses will be offered leading to such varied goals as job improvement, a high school diploma, and self-enrichment.

A wide assortment of day and evening classes has been scheduled. Business, homemaking, physical conditioning, parent education, academic, fine arts and crafts classes have been scheduled. Adults with specialized interests might prefer enrolling in such courses as rapid reading, income tax preparation, woodcarving, automotive fundamentals for women, graphic arts, consumer protection, investments, photography, or aviation ground school.

Most evening classes will meet on the campus of Albany High School, 603 Key Route Blvd. A single tuition of $6 covers the costs for one or more courses. Those wishing further information should call 526-6441. Winter Quarter class schedules and course summaries are available upon request.

Senior Citizen Fare Extended

The time period for the special senior citizen fare on AC Transit buses was extended to 4 p.m. effective yesterday (Jan. 2), one hour beyond the previous period.

Under the special fare plan, senior citizens may ride for 10 cents from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 3 a.m. on weekdays, and all day on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

Zone charges do not apply in the East Bay, permitting senior citizens to ride from San Pablo to Hayward for a dime.

DAVID OKAWACHI, STEPHEN MARRA AND MARCO MENIKETTI were awarded Scouting's highest rank, Eagle, at the Troop 12 Court of Honor at Camp Herms on November 24. This is the first time in Troop 12 history that the Eagle rank was awarded to three scouts in one Court of Honor.

Eagle Awards for Three Local Boys Presented at Camp Herms

A memorable occasion took place for Albany Boy Scout Troop 12 at Camp Herms Lodge on the evening of November 24 when, for the first time in the history of the troop, three Eagle awards were presented to Albany High School June graduates Stephen Marra, Marco Meniketti and David Okawachi.

In attendance were several honored guests: Mayor Joe Carlew of Albany; R. L. Winslow, district scout commissioner; Ray Correia, commander of American Legion Post 292; Thomas Thompson, Troop 12 institutional representative; and Ralph Buckwalter, American Legion Post 292 chaplain, who gave the invocation.

Distinguished scouting officials who took part in the program were: Lynn Nevenswander, Camp Herms district executive, who spoke on the "Scouting Trail;" and Gil Talmadge, neighborhood commissioner, who opened the Eagle court.

Special guests who presented the Eagle candidates were: Albert Good, Ken Logan and Eldon Wolf. Presenting Eagle rings were Miss Vicki Marra, Eldon Wolf and Mrs. Nishi.

Past Eagle Scouts of the troop were introduced. They were Mike and Steve Still, and Kevin Keck.

Troop 12 Scout Dads who took active part in the Eagle Court were: Walter Corvello, scoutmaster; James Morrison, committee chairman; Dr. Shantil Mutha, advancement chairman, and committee Francis Rivard and Ed Goldberg.

Serving refreshments were the Troop Mothers' Club and Mrs. Guy Laverty, an Eagle Scout Mother.

Stephen Marra is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Marra. Stephen excelled in tennis, band and dramatics at Albany High School. He had the leading role in the two musicals, "Oklahoma" and "South Pacific" and he is now attending U.C. at Berkeley where he is majoring in pre-law.

Marco Meniketti is the son of Mrs. Ruth Meniketti and Dario Meniketti. At Albany High School Marco was editor and photographer of the yearbook, active in dramatics and he lettered in track and cross country. He was team captain of the latter. Marco had a highly acclaimed photographic exhibit at the Albany Public Library. He is at present a biology major at U.C. Berkeley and is an aspiring candidate for coxswain on the freshman crew. Marco spent the past summer in Lebanon on the American Field Service program.

David Okawachi is the son of Mrs. Jewell Okawachi. David excelled in high school band at Albany High School. He was captain of the tennis team and won many honors as an outstanding baseball player which team he co-captained. David is currently enrolled at Loyola University in Los Angeles, where he is majoring in pre-dentistry. In the spring Dave will don his spikes and make a bid for a place on the freshman "nine."

All three young men ranked high academically and are recipients of scholarships. They will remain in Troop 12 as assistant scoutmasters.

Troop 12 is sponsored by American Legion Post 292. Scout meetings are held Wednesday evenings at St. Alban's Church. Boys are invited to join.

Tickets are now available for the Albany Lions Club 6th Annual Crab Feed, to be held at the Albany Veterans Memorial Building, Friday, Jan. 26.

Tickets are available from any local club member, or at the Chelemados Grocery Store, 1251 Solano Ave.

The Albany Lions Club will hold their first meeting of the new year on Thursday, Jan. 4, at 7:30 p.m. at Spenger's Restaurant.

It will be a business meeting and all members are urged to attend and come prepared to work.

Lions Club Crab Feed

The Lions Club of Albany will hold its sixth annual crab feed on the evening of Friday, Jan. 26. As usual, the affair will be held in the Veterans Memorial Building on Portland Street in Albany.

Those who have previously attended this crab feed know that the food and fun are always good and plentiful. This year will be no exception. This year, most similar crab feeds in this area have been cancelled because of the scarcity of crab. The dauntless Lions Club of Albany, however, "The club that knows how," has guaranteed that they will have crab for their patrons.

Unfortunately, the increase in the price of crab and other commodities has necessitated raising the price to $6.50. Tickets are now available at Call Brothers Jewelers, Chelemados Market, Drozda's Service Station, Mary & Joe's Sporting Goods, McDonald's Hamburgers, Richard's Jewelers, Albany Chamber of Commerce or from any member of the Lions Club of Albany.

The number of tickets is definitely limited. None will be sold at the door. Tickets must be purchased no later than January 18.

The menu will include cracked crab, salad, baked beans, hot French bread and beverages. After the dinner, there will be dancing and other fun until 1 p.m.

This annual crab feed is now the Albany Lions Club's chief fund raising activity. The profits pay for the many Lions community services.

Stop Smoking Clinics Start

A new clinic program, designed to help local citizens stop smoking, will be launched this month by the Alameda County Health Care Services Agency.

The start of the program will coincide with "National Smoking Education Week," January 7-15, during which an all-out effort will be made by many organizations to reduce the county's estimated 240,000 smoking population.

The first clinic will begin at 7 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 9, at the Eden Health Center, 15001 Foothill Blvd., San Leandro. Bi-weekly sessions will be held on Tuesday and Thursday for a four-week period. A similar clinic series will start early in February at the Agency's eastern district health center at 2226 Santa Clara Ave., Alameda.

Thereafter, it is expected that both centers will continue to initiate a new series of such clinics each month.

Other organizations planning similar clinics include: the Kaiser Health Foundation, the Seventh Day Adventist Church, and Smoke Watchers, Inc.

For further information on the clinics, please call Mrs. Sheila Reed, 351-8000, Ext. 434.

Latin American Dance Classes At Berkeley Y

One of the most popular programs at the Berkeley YMCA is the Latin American dance class for single men and women as well as couples.

Joyce and Leonard Carter instruct the intermediate class in Rumba and Cha-Cha-Cha at 7:30 p.m., and the advance class in Western Swing and Waltz at 9 p.m. Classes are held every Monday night beginning January 8 for a period of seven weeks. Included in each lesson is a practice session for both classes from 8:30 to 9 o'clock.

This is a good way to make new friends and have fun. Registrations are now open.

Conversation

...an entirely new idea!

We think that many of you, from all walks of life, would occasionally like to be able to go somewhere and talk about anything on your mind, to another person. . . .

We think that your conversation should be confidential, and that the person you talk to should be warm, intelligent, and straightforward; with no other involvement with you, or obligation to you (it's sometimes difficult to speak your mind with neighbors, relatives, fellow employees, etc.). . . .

We think that conversation flourishes, and can be most enjoyable, over a good cup of coffee or tea, in the warm, informal atmosphere of a comfortable private booth. . . .

So we're going to provide all of this; a nice person to talk to, a comfortable place to be, and as much fine coffee or tea as you'd like, for a fee based on the length of time of the conversation. We hope that we can serve you

AC Transit Installs BART Service Bus Stops

The expected extension of BART service to Richmond is being foreshadowed this month by the installation of hundreds of new curbside bus stop signs by AC Transit.

A total of 2,947 new signs are being installed for the opening of the Oakland to Richmond branch of rail rapid transit service. These signs replace old "Bus Stop" and "Coach" signs—some of which date from Key System days.

As an improved informational guide, new signs list the number of the bus which observes the stop; its main destination; limitations in service; whether use is restricted to transbay riding and whether or not the bus goes to a BART station.

A band of blue at the bottom of the signs will notify riders that a bus to BART stops at that location. The blue strip also will alert passing motorists of the extent of connector service, encouraging them to try bus and rail for their next trip.

The work is being done now because of the large number of signs involved. AC Transit expects to have all coordination completed in time for the planned BART extension early next year.

The metal signs are 11 inches wide and vary in depth from 10 to 20 inches, depending on the number of bus lines which observe a particular stop. Signs are slotted into tops of eight-foot high poles by maintenance workers.

men who also repaint the poles.

In order to cause the least amount of confusion, signs along new routes, and signs along routes which will have major changes when BART is extended, are being left to the last possible moment.

In the meantime, bus riders should ignore the message "Buses to BART Stop Here." Bus service will continue as is until BART is extended, regardless of what the signs indicate.

Church News

"Key '73," the continent-wide witness for Christ during the calendar year of 1973, will be the focus of the 11 a.m. worship service this Sunday at Albany First Baptist Church. The church, which has already voted to participate in the year-long witness, will begin active involvement by means of a service of Dedication this Sunday. Each member will be asked to dedicate himself or herself to the goals of "Key '73" in sharing the good news of Christ with others in the year ahead. The Pastor will bring the Communion Meditation entitled "Yes, Lord," at that service.

During the month of January the evening messages will deal with the subject of evangelism as a part of the "Key '73" emphasis. This week at the 7 p.m. service the subject will be "First Century Evangelism." Interested persons are invited to attend these services.

Editor, the Times:

We want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Harold Olson and Yvonne Walk-up for the 10-pound box of See's Candy they sent to the residents of the Albany Rest Home.

Also the Albany Chamber of Commerce and Security Savings & Loan, for sending Santa Claus to visit us with gifts, and to Al Martinez of the Solano Avenue Pharmacy for our guest calendars, and the kind lady who took pictures of our guests while Santa Claus was visiting.

Thanks also to the Campfire girls from the 4th and 5th grades at Franklin School, Albany Middle School and the Brownies from Cornell School, along with Grace-mont Church and Grace Lutheran Church for singing carols.

We would also like to thank the organization that brought the little elves to visit us, and Yolanda Greco for taking of her valuable time to style the ladies' hair and give out Christmas gifts to all our guests.

A special thanks to the Albany Police and Fire Departments for all the help they give our rest home throughout the year, and anyone else we may have overlooked.

May we extend best wishes for the New Year from the guests of the Albany Rest Home and from, ADELE & MIKE GOMEZ.

Editor, the Times:

During this Holiday Season we have all been wining and dining, giving and receiving gifts and enjoying endless festivities. In fact, our garbage cans are better fed than some nations! However, I wonder if many people have remembered our four-footed friends out in the cold, wet weather, freezing and starving.

In Sweden, part of the Christmas preparations is to clean and prepare for the animals, giving special food for them, in memory of the stable where Christ was born.

Pets & Pals is dedicated to every phase of humane work, and are helping feed strays throughout the State... also are helping people get veterinarian care for their pets, sometimes at lower cost if we can.

In order to help cut down the over-population of cats and dogs, we have the spaying and altering program at half-price for those who can't afford full price. This is done by various doctors in the area.

Donation and volunteer help will be appreciated, especially at this Holiday Season. Help us help our helpless friends. Call or write Pets & Pals for information about any of these services; 339-2788; P.O. Box 13053, Station E, Oakland, Ca. 94661.
